8 9	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE
10	REVEREND DR. KAMAL K. ROY,	Case No. 08-01480-RSL-JPD
11 12	Plaintiff, v.	REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
13	FEDERAL ELECTION et al.,
14 15	Defendants.

Plaintiff Reverend Dr. Kamal K. Roy, proceeding pro se, has filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis ("IFP") in this proposed civil rights lawsuit against numerous defendants, including "Federal Election," Senator Barack Obama, Senator John McCain, and "GOP National Committee." Dkt. No. 1-2 at 1. After careful consideration of plaintiff's IFP application, proposed complaint, supporting materials, the governing law and the balance of the record, the Court recommends that his case be DISMISSED without prejudice and his IFP application DENIED as moot.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B), this Court may deny an application to proceed IFP and should dismiss a complaint if it is frivolous or fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i)-(ii); O'Loughlin v. Doe, 920 F.2d 614, 616

(9th Cir. 1990). An action is frivolous if "it lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact." Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325 (1989). The fact that plaintiff is not a prisoner does not change this analysis. See Lopez v. Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1129 (9th Cir. 2000) ("[S]ection 1915(e) applies to all in forma pauperis complaints, not just those filed by prisoners.").

In order to state a claim for relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must assert that he suffered a violation of rights protected by the U.S. Constitution or created by federal statute, and that the violation was proximately caused by a person acting under color of state or federal law. See Crumpton v. Gates, 947 F.2d 1418, 1420 (9th Cir. 1991).

9 Plaintiff has failed to do so here. Indeed, his proposed complaint is incomprehensible. 10 It is a fifteen-page combination of handwritten pages and copies of various documents, 11 including printouts from internet websites and miscellaneous pre-printed forms. Each 12 document contains handwritten comments scrawled around the borders of the page or between 13 paragraphs, making many pages impossible to read. See Dkt. No. 1-2. In sum, the proposed 14 complaint sets forth a string of rambling statements that: (a) fail to specifically identify what 15 federal statutory or constitutional rights were allegedly violated; and (b) fail to show how the 16 named defendants personally participated in depriving plaintiff of his federal or constitutional 17 rights. Additionally, several of the named defendants do not appear to be state actors subject to 18 suit under § 1983. Because this action appears frivolous and fails to state a claim upon which 19 relief can be granted, it is subject to dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B) and Federal 20 Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6).

The Court notes that this is not the first time that plaintiff has lodged a frivolous complaint in this district. See, e.g., Roy v. McCain, C08-919-TSZ, Roy v. All State Bd. of Elections, C07-1419-RSL; Roy v. Roberts et al., C07-1157-TSZ; Roy v. Bush et al., C07-484JCC. To this end, the Court advises plaintiff of his responsibility to research the facts and law before filing a complaint in order to determine whether his claim for relief is frivolous. If plaintiff files another frivolous action, he may be sanctioned. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 11. If
